The Arts at Good Samaritan is Open for Registration!- God has given each person talent; therefore, it is the goal of The Arts at Good Samaritan to provide opportunities to develop His gift to us. Beginning the week of August 18th classes for all ages (children from three months through adults) will be offered in the areas of Music and Dance. Dance instruction will be available in creative movement, tap, ballet, Irish Dance, and lyrical. Music instruction will be offered in Kindermusik, piano, guitar, voice, violin, woodwinds, brass, and percussion. No later than May 30th the schedules will be available at www.GoodSamaritanArts.org . You may reserve your spot by completing the online registration form. If you have any questions, please contact Martha at 325-6753 or Arts@GoodSamaritanTallahassee.org.

Are You Interested In Becoming a Member?- The next membership class will be Saturday, June 14th from 9:00 AM until NOON. The location has not yet been finalized and will be announced in the near future. If you would like to participate in the membership class, please check the box in the registration book or contact Pastor Erick.

Help Pulling the Trailer- We are still looking for a some more guys/gals to help pull the trailers on Sunday mornings. We need 4 more people who would serve once a month and 2 people who would serve when there are 5 Sundays in a month. If you can help with this valuable ministry contact Pastor Erick.

Supplies for Iraq- Monday is Memorial Day, a day of remembrance honoring the men and women of our armed forces especially those who died in the line of duty to our country. As most of you know, Mike Shockley, pastor of Tallahassee Heights UMC, is a Navy Reserve Chaplain who is currently on active duty in Bagram, Afghanistan providing Christian support to the men and women serving there. Part of this support is through a "care package ministry" consisting of goodies to eat, personal hygiene, as well as, encouragement and hope items. In support of this ministry, the Good Samaritan UMC will be collecting supplies beginning next Sunday so that they can be distributed to the young men and women stationed there especially those assigned to forward bases. A list of items needed is on the Information Table and for additional information please contact Linda and Phillip Moncrief at (850) 325-1188 or pmoncrief@netzero.net. Let's fill as many boxes as possible to care for and honor those serving our country.

Youth Group- The Youth Group will not meet today or next Sunday, June 1. Make sure to put in your study time for exams this week. The Youth Group will be meeting on Saturday, May 31st. Contact Jeremy for more information.

Pregnancy Help and Information Center- The PHI Center is hosting the Tournament "Fore" Life on June 16, 2008 at the Killlearn Country Club. The tournament will help the PHI Center to fulfill their mission of Christian based, life affirming education and service. Information is available at the back table or by calling 222-7123. Pastor Erick is game to play if we can get a foursome together!

Instruments for The Arts at Good Samaritan- The building at Good Samaritan is in its final stages of completion. As part of this new ministry Good Samaritan is establishing an arts education program as part of its outreach. This program will be dedicated to providing the highest quality arts education in the areas of music, dance, art, and drama for children and adults. As we grow this program we need instruments, especially pianos to help fill our new building with music. If you have an instrument you would like to donate, a possible tax deduction may be available, please call Martha Stubbs at 325-6753.

Welcome To Worship

Welcome to Good Samaritan's worship service, we are so glad you came today. We are a new church start sponsored by Killbuck United Methodist Church. Please get a nametag, grab a cup of coffee & a donut and make yourself at home.

We have a nursery for children from 4 weeks through Kindergarten. We invite school aged children to worship with us in the service. There are Kids' Worship Bags and Children's Bulletins available to help keep hands occupied and minds stimulated during worship. We believe that the presence of children in worship enhances our communal worship experience and adds a blessing to the life of the church family. If you wish children can attend Kids' Worship following the children's sermon. You may retrieve your children in the chorus room during communion or following the worship service.

Holy Communion is celebrated each time we gather together on Sunday. We have an open communion table. Everyone who desires to be forgiven for their sin and to turn to follow Jesus is welcome to come to receive the sacrament. Take the bread that is offered and dip it into the cup.

We believe that the ancient traditions of the Church have much to offer us today when understood. Here are some words they may be unfamiliar along with their definition.

Sacrament: A visible sign of an invisible truth. Holy Communion and Baptism are our sacraments.

Doxology: A short hymn or verse of praise. From the Greek Doxa/glory and Logos/word

Acolytes: These are the children who symbolically bring in the light of Christ by lighting the candles on the altar signifying the beginning of our worship service and Christ's presence among us. At the end of the service they distinguish the candles and symbolically lead us in carrying the light of Christ into the world.
